Foundations of Literacy: Beginning Reading™ Online

Course Description
Foundations of Literacy: Beginning Reading™ Online explores the components of early reading as defined by the National Reading Panel and the International Reading Association. Participants will build a knowledge base, including a portfolio of teaching strategies, for each component and then apply that knowledge in a classroom setting. Several modules will include brief discussions on compatible informal assessments. At the end of the course participants will construct a final capstone lesson plan that incorporates each early reading component for use in the classroom.

Course Alignments
This PLS 3rd Learning course is aligned to Charlotte Danielson’s Framework for Teaching:
- Domain 1 – 1A, 1C, 1E, and 1F
- Domain 2 – 2B
- Domain 3 – 3A, 3C, and 3D
- Domain 4 – 4A, 4E, and 4F

Course Outcomes
Upon completion of this class, the learner will be able to:
1. Explain the theories of language development and relate specific examples from his or her own experience to those theories.
2. Articulate the role of the family in language development.
3. Define the components of reading as stated by the National Reading Panel and the International Reading Association.
4. Articulate the levels of phonological awareness and develop strategies for each level.
5. Differentiate between phonological awareness and phonics.
6. Develop strategies for teaching phonics using three different approaches: synthetic, analytic, and decoding by analogy.
7. Develop and use appropriate lesson plan materials.
8. Develop strategies to enhance students’ sight word vocabulary, analysis skills, and use of context clues and dictionaries for word identification.
9. Explain schema theory and transactive theory and their relationships to reading.
10. Compose lists of vocabulary words from both narrative and expository texts and apply strategies to teach those vocabulary words to students.
11. Articulate the components of fluency and how fluency or the lack thereof influences comprehension.
12. Develop strategies to enhance students’ fluency.
13. Articulate how word identification skills, vocabulary, and fluency affect comprehension.
14. Choose appropriate visual organizers and other strategies to enhance comprehension in both narrative and expository text.
15. Develop a lesson plan for a literature selection, either narrative or expository text that includes word identification skills, background information and vocabulary, fluency, and comprehension and motivation strategies.
16. Articulate how all the components of reading affect motivation and vice versa.
17. Develop formal and informal assessments of literacy skills.
18. Generalize this course content to reflect how its skills, strategies, and knowledge meet the needs of multicultural and diverse populations within classrooms.
19. Reflect on and continuously evaluate personal practice, adjust accordingly, and actively seek out opportunities to grow professionally using the knowledge and skills of this course.
20. Work collaboratively to refine understanding of content, give and receive feedback, improve expertise, and share knowledge, skills, and experiences.

Required Text
Instructors and learners will also use instructor-generated materials, learner-generated materials, and Web-based resources to facilitate learning.

Decoding Words Using Phonics
Phonics and why it is taught; three approaches to teaching phonics: synthetic, analytic, and decoding by analogy or onset and rime; phonics generalizations; strategies for developing phonics skills; assessing phonics skills

Sight Words and Context Clues
Sight words; two major lists of sight words: Fry list and Dolch list; strategies to develop students’ sight word vocabulary; other word identification skills, including context clues, structural analysis, and dictionary use

Comprehension
Schema theory; transactive theory of reading; connection of schema theory and transactive theory to reading; features of narrative text; strategies to develop comprehension of narrative text; different types of vocabulary words; strategies to increase students’ vocabularies

Comprehension of Expository Text
Difficulties associated with expository text; strategies to help with comprehension of expository text; assessing students’ comprehension of text

Fluency and Motivation
Components of fluency; strategies to develop fluency; materials for developing fluency; how word identification, vocabulary, fluency, and comprehension affect motivation and vice versa

Putting It All Together
Final lesson plan that includes applying strategies from each module and course reflection

Course Assessments and Links to Institutional Outcomes and Course Outcomes
Throughout the course, the learner will be assessed and evaluated on the completion of the following assessments. Participants will complete a course project designed to strengthen professional practice and extend knowledge related to the specific content of the course. This project is divided into multiple grade activities to be completed throughout the term. Additional learning activities include whole-group and small-group discussions and assessments for a total of 855 points.

Criteria specific to each assessment will be explained in conjunction with the instructional activities.

Instructional Methodology
The instructional methodology of this course focuses on developing, enhancing, and improving the instructional expertise and pedagogical knowledge base of practicing educators. Strategies include presentation of new content through online readings, active construction of knowledge through practice and problem solving, collaborative group work, personal reflection, structured small-group or whole-class discussion, analysis of assigned reading, and the application of course content and skills to participant’s individual grade level, subject area(s), and classroom.

Grading Scale
The course facilitator will post the college-specific grading scale.

PLS 3rd Learning’s Late Policy
There will be a 10% deduction of points per day for all posts and submitted assignments that are late. Replies posted after the due date will earn no points. In rare cases, partially or poorly completed assignments may be resubmitted for partial credit at the discretion of the instructor. The following exceptions apply:

- If a participant is sick/hospitalized or has a death in the family, the timing of makeup work may be arranged with the course facilitator. No points will be deducted if the work is completed according to the agreement.
- If a participant is on vacation/traveling/etc., the participant must contact the course facilitator ahead of time to avoid a penalty. This type of absence may occur only once during a course. All posts should be submitted for the missed module before leaving.
- If a participant has difficulty completing everything in a week, an extension can be granted if the participant contacts the facilitator during the week (not at the last minute).

PLS 3rd Learning’s Participant Drop Policy
- Participants are eligible to receive a refund if they attend class for one week or less. This means participants must withdraw by the end of Module 1 to receive a refund.
• Refunds of the balance of tuition paid will be given, minus the $50 deposit.

PLS 3rd Learning’s Academic Integrity Policy

PLS 3rd Learning expects absolute academic honesty and integrity from every course participant. The specific Academic Integrity and Honor Code Policies of our partner colleges and universities are embraced and enforced by PLS 3rd Learning instructors. The following are considered to be serious violations:

• Plagiarism: the use of another’s ideas, data, or words without proper acknowledgement.
• Fabrication: the use of invented information or the falsification of research or other findings with the intent to deceive.
• Collusion: improper collaboration with another in preparing assignments or projects.
• Cheating: an act of deception by which a student misrepresents that he or she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he or she has not mastered.
• Academic Misconduct: tampering with grades, or taking part in obtaining or distributing any part of student work that is not his or her own.

Violation or suspected violation will be investigated and pursued according to specific college/university procedures.

Identity Authentication

The college/university, PLS 3rd Learning, and students share a joint responsibility to ensure that each student’s contribution in an online course activity comes from that student alone. For the student, this responsibility has two parts:

1. Students are responsible for positively ensuring that every contribution to an online course created with the student’s computer account is made by the student alone. Contributions covered under this policy include: written assignments; quiz and exam submissions; discussion forum postings; live participation in text-based chat sessions, phone conferences, and videoconferences. If a student allows another person to write or make any kind of submission to an online activity in the student’s name, then this constitutes cheating and will be treated as a violation of academic honesty.
2. Students are responsible for ensuring the integrity of their computer account security by following the actions required of them by the PLS 3rd Learning Acceptable Use Policy. These actions include keeping passcodes private, updating passcodes when required by PLS 3rd Learning, and reporting breaches of the security policy to the IT Helpdesk.

Course Evaluation

The evaluation of learner work will be based on the defined criteria for learner assessments. The criteria for learner assessments will be outlined for students prior to instructional activities and engagement with student learning targets (outcomes). Grading is based solely on the evaluation of student learning targets and defined criteria for learner assessments.
Formative assessment of learning outcomes is conducted throughout the course, using a variety of means that include the following: completion of assessments; constructive contributions to class discussions (whole-class as well as small-group); sharing of valuable, pertinent, and/or applicable ideas and experiences; and active participation in online interactions. It is expected that each participant will contribute to the academic quality of the course.

Summative assessment includes the completion of weekly learning activities and assignments for which the participant will need to synthesize class content, apply it to his or her own practice, and complete a plan for implementing the major components of content and skill acquired during the course.

Alignments to Charlotte Danielson’s Framework for Teaching

Each PLS 3rd Learning course is aligned to the components in Charlotte Danielson’s Framework for Teaching. The alignments for this course are listed below.

DOMAIN 1: PLANNING AND PREPARATION
1A. Demonstrating Knowledge of Content and Pedagogy
1C. Setting Instructional Outcomes
1E. Designing Coherent Instruction
1F. Designing Student Assessments

DOMAIN 2: THE CLASSROOM ENVIRONMENT
2B. Establishing a Culture for Learning

DOMAIN 3: INSTRUCTION
3A. Communicating with Students
3C. Engaging Students in Learning
3D. Using Assessment in Instruction

DOMAIN 4: PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Standard 7: Planning for Instruction
The teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.

Standard 8: Instructional Strategies
The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.

Standard 9: Professional Learning and Ethical Practice
The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually evaluate his/her practice, particularly the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.

Standard 10: Leadership and Collaboration
The teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, to collaborate with learners, families, colleagues, other school professionals, and community members to ensure learner growth, and to advance the profession.

They know how to engage students to ensure a disciplined learning environment, and how to organize instruction to meet instructional goals.

NBCTs know how to assess the progress of individual students as well as the class as a whole.

They use multiple methods for measuring student growth and understanding, and they can clearly explain student performance to parents.

Proposition 4: Teachers Think Systematically about Their Practice and Learn from Experience.

NBCTs model what it means to be an educated person – they read, they question, they create and they are willing to try new things.

They are familiar with learning theories and instructional strategies and stay abreast of current issues in American education.

They critically examine their practice on a regular basis to deepen knowledge, expand their repertoire of skills, and incorporate new findings into their practice.

Proposition 5: Teachers are Members of Learning Communities.

NBCTs collaborate with others to improve student learning.

They are leaders and actively know how to seek and build partnerships with community groups and businesses.

They work with other professionals on instructional policy, curriculum development and staff development.

They can evaluate school progress and the allocation of resources in order to meet state and local education objectives.

They know how to work collaboratively with parents to engage them productively in the work of the school.
